Insurance Recovery Hub open for policyholders affected by recent hail storm

The Insurance Council of Australia is hosting a two-day Insurance Recovery Hub for those affected by the December 20, hail storm.

Insurance company representatives will join disaster recovery experts from the Insurance Council of Australia to help policyholders lodge claims, provide general insurance guidance and manage lodged claims.

ICA CEO Rob Whelan said: "The Insurance Recovery Hub has been established to give people affected by the recent damaging hail storm; a central point to meet face-to-face with insurance specialists to discuss their personal insurance situation."

The Insurance Recovery Hub will be open for two days Tuesday February 5 and Wednesday February 6, 2019 from 8am to 3pm.

To attend please register at www.disasters.org.au/berowra or phone 1800 734 621.
