

July 16, 2014

Willis Reinsurance Australia joins ICA

The Insurance Council of Australia (ICA) welcomes Willis Reinsurance Australia Limited as an ICA member company. Willis joined the ICA during the 2013-14 financial year.

Willis Reinsurance Australia is a member of the Willis Group, a global risk advisor, insurance and reinsurance broker. Willis has nine offices in Australia and New Zealand, and more than 450 employees.

ICA CEO and Executive Director Rob Whelan said: "The ICA is pleased to welcome Willis Reinsurance Australia to the Insurance Council – its membership adds to the depth of the ICA and demonstrates the diversity of the industry."

The CEO of Willis Reinsurance Australia, Mr Cameron Green, said it was appealing to contribute to the development of the industry.

"We plan to be an active participant and seek to join in the discussion and debate at every possible opportunity," Mr Green said.

This brings the ICA membership to 54 member groups, which account for more than 90 per cent of all insurance business transacted in Australia by authorised insurers. These include insurance and reinsurance companies, Lloyds underwriters, intermediaries and agencies from both the private and public sectors.

During the 2013 calendar year, JLT Towers Re Australia joined the ICA.

-ENDS-